HISTORIC HOUSES OF KEW

The Kew Historical Society's new exhibition at the Kew Court House opens in History Week 2018. It includes paintings of both cottages and mansions by Joy Stewart (1925-2018). A story accompanying each building explores its architectural significance as well as the lives of its inhabitants. The exhibition will be open to the public each Friday and Saturday between 11.00-1.00 until March 2019.
